Thanks for using Advanced Marketing Institute's Headline Analyzer! You submitted the following headline for Emotional Marketing Value analysis:

"The Chicago Cubs are the best team in baseball"

Your Headline's EMV Score: 33.33%

This score indicates that your headline has a total of 33.33% Emotional Marketing Value (EMV) Words. To put that in perspective, the English language contains approximately 20% EMV words.

And for comparison, most professional copywriters' headlines will have 30%-40% EMV Words in their headlines, while the most gifted copywriters will have 50%-75% EMV words in headlines.

A perfect score would be 100%, but that is rare unless your headline is less than five words.

Empathetic

Your headline words have a predominantly Empathetic appeal. While not as common as words with Intellectual impact, words which resonate in with Empathetic impact often bring out profound and strong positive emotional reactions in people.

Copy containing empathetic impact words are best used to attune with people and businesses involved with care-giving. For example, nurses, doctors, and counselors all tend to respond easily and favorably to Empathetic words. Women, and especially mothers, are very strong in their use of Empathetic impact words in the language. While use of Empathetic impact words does not have to be limited to these groups, we’ve found that by selecting more words with Empathetic impact delivers desirable conversion responses from those types of market segments.

AVERAGE

STRENGTHS

- Limited use of passive language
  Well done! By avoiding passive words like: almost, doubt, confused, and guess, your reader is more likely to click.

SUGGESTIONS

- Increase headline length
- Where's the brand?
- Use more Alert Words
- Talk about the body
- Use Context Words
- Try adding a celebrity

---

@tschmedding #ACES2017
The variation among engagement rates boils down to simple word choice. For example, using celebrities in your headline (sup Drake!) or humanizing the ad with words related to people (i.e. hair, friend, laugh) can increase engagement.

It's common knowledge that less than 1% of all ads are clicked on. Increase the value of your impressions using Context Words to grab attention and build trust. Try mentioning a brand (yours or a brand you want to be associated with) to increase brand lift.
